SSRMP Annual Scientific Meeting 2008

6th and 7th of November in Chur

Location: Kirchgemeindehaus Titthof, Tittwiesenstrasse 8, 7000 Chur

Second Invitation

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

The registration form for the annual scientific meeting is now available on the SSRMP homepage. Please fill this out and return not later than the 20th of October 2008. There will be no conference fee but a preregistration is mandatory. The cost of the evening dinner with Specialitads dal Grischun, with Apéro and drinks included is CHF 60 per person.

On Thursday the 6th of November we shall start at 10:30 with the registration. The first scientific session will start at 11:00. The SSRMP general assembly will take place later on this day and prior to the visit to the cathedral and conference dinner.

The first scientific session on the second day, Friday the 7th of November, will start at 9:00. The general assembly of the Swiss Professional Association of Medical Physicists (SPAMP) will take place between the scientific sessions on this day.

Further details of the programme will be available soon on the SSRMP homepage.

Please contact Churtourismus (www.churtourismus.ch) to arrange your hotel accommodation.

We look forward to welcoming you in Chur!

Karl Ludwig Rittmann
